

SUNDAY Q&A: FEBRUARY 5

IN THE LAST 30 DAYS THE BOARD HAS...

- Completed UWM's Sr. Minister application packet review. Plan is to send to UWM early this week.
- Board webpage finally done and access issues resolved! Working to finalize content. Access will require an ID and password which will be sent to members via e-mail this month.
- Key workgroup updates
 - Nomination Committee – Met as planned. Recommendations made to Board for open Board seats.
 - Governance – Met twice since last Q&A: 01/18, 01/25.
 - Policy Manual. Continuing outline re-organization and development of missing / inadequate policies.
 - Feb / Mar Focus: Contract templates, Board member on-boarding, performance review templates, volunteer handbook.
 - Ministerial Search – Meeting monthly. Paul may further comment.
 - Finalized interview questions.
 - Working on scoring process.
- COVID Policy: Risk remains low. Per the CDC tracker, King Country has remained at low risk. In addition, with a few exceptions of medium risk pockets, the majority of all Western and Westerly-Mid West states are now all classified as low risk. The King Country website continues to reflect low risk as well.
- Annual meeting prep. Board has agreed that the format will be the same as last year. Jean is working with Susan to better understand administration and gathering of data. Rev. Denese will be consulted when reviewing content.
- Financial recap. Dorothy to comment.
- Further deferred: to March Board meeting - Process for promoting income generating ideas to Board level.
